

Louisiana Community and Technical College System Master Syllabus

Course Name: Intermediate Spanish II

Course Number: SPAN 202/2020

Credit Hours: 3

Course Description: Continues the skills developed in SPAN 201. Emphasis is placed on reading and writing skills and personal communication. The course develops further appreciation and understanding of the Hispanic culture.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will be able to use the Spanish language to:

- Talk about the future: use future and subjunctive.
- Express conjecture.
- Categorize professions.
- Talk about social problems.
- Establish communication in colloquial Spanish.
- Participate in Hispanic culture by finding and reporting on ads targeting native speakers of Spanish.
- Write or dictate a greeting card for different social occasions or holidays.
- Use subjunctive, past subjunctive, conditional, and conditional perfect.
- Engage Hispanic culture through analysis of editorials.
- Analyze editorials.
- Use strategies to predict content.
- Make arrangements to stay at a place.
- Analyze and interpret a book and prepare a book report.

Content Outline:

- I. Talk About the Future: Use of Future and Subjunctive
- II. Express Conjecture
- III. Refuse to Answer a Question
- IV. Categorize Professions
- V. Discuss Social Problems
- VI. Establish Communication in Colloquial Spanish
- VII. Find and Report Information in Ads Targeting Native Spanish Speakers.
- VIII. Write or Dictate a Greeting Card for Different Social Occasions or Holidays.
- IX. Use Subjunctive, Past Subjunctive, Conditional, and Conditional Perfect

- X. Analyze Editorials
- XI. Use Strategies to Predict Outcomes
- XII. Make Arrangement to Stay at a Place
- XIII. Analyze and Interpret a Book and Prepare a Book Report

Assessment: A variety of learning-centered assessment activities will be used to measure and evaluate student performance. These may include, but are not limited to the following: class presentations, reflective portfolio assignments, papers, tests, quizzes, homework assignments, in-class activities, peer evaluation, guided discovery, and feedback from class activities.

Course Offered At:

BRCC